

DOUGH

WE MAKE LEGIT COOKIE DOUGH.

Eat it (raw) or heat it (at 350°).

We ditch the eggs and heat-treat our flour so you can dig into our cookie dough raw or bake it into cookies.

A dose of hope.

All of our dough is produced at The Bread Project, a local non-profit kitchen that supports low-income individuals.

Made in a kitchen, not in a lab.

Flour, brown sugar, flaxseed, butter, vanilla, baking soda, salt.

Not just dough, but a lifestyle.

Through the founders' personal journey to sobriety, we're a mission-driven brand supporting mental health and addiction treatment.
